

DAY 1 - Wednesday, March 28, 2018

7:30 am - 8:30 am: Registration (Gardner Foyer)

8:30 am - 8:45 am: Welcome/Conference Opening (Gardner Auditorium)

8:45 am - 10:15 am: “Collaboration Pays Off” John Wilkinson (Gardner Auditorium)

When it comes to domestic violence and sexual assault cases, closing cases can be far more difficult. John, a former prosecutor, will teach on how to effectively collaborate among agencies and all parts of the criminal justice system to close more cases and better serve victims.

10:15 am - 10:30 am: BREAK

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: Breakout Sessions (choose your own session)

“Overcoming the Consent Defense” (Gardner Auditorium)

John Wilkinson

“Case Study: A Serial Stalker and Abuser, Dammon Hayes” (Elkhorn - Student Center)

Detective Beth Abramson

“Physical Forensics & The Court Room” (Niobrara West - Student Center)

Officer Ben Rodenberg & Deputy County Attorney Mike Gilmour

“Digital Evidence: Collection, Preservation, & Prosecution” (Niobrara East - Student Center)

Detective Mark Dishaw, Detective Brandon Stigge, & FBI Computer Examiner Jordan Warnock

“Immigrant Victims: Tactics & Solutions” (Meadowlark - Student Center)

Dearra Rodriguez & Anna Deal - Justice For Our Neighbors

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm: LUNCH (Frey Suite - Student Center)

1:00 pm - 2:30 pm: Breakout Sessions (choose your own session)

“Drug & Alcohol Facilitated Sexual Assault” (Gardner Auditorium)

John Wilkinson

“Case Study: A Serial Stalker and Abuser, Dammon Hayes” (Elkhorn - Student Center)

Detective Beth Abramson

“Physical Forensics & The Court Room” (Niobrara West - Student Center)

Officer Ben Rodenberg & Deputy County Attorney Mike Gilmour

“Digital Evidence: Collection, Preservation, & Prosecution” (Niobrara East - Student Center)

Detective Mark Dishaw, Detective Brandon Stigge, & FBI Computer Examiner Jordan Warnock

“Immigrant Victims: Tactics & Solutions” (Meadowlark - Student Center)

Dearra Rodriguez & Anna Deal - Justice For Our Neighbors

2:30 pm - 2:45 pm: BREAK

2:45 pm - 4:15 pm: “But He Never Hit Her” Sgt Ryan Phinney & Bethany (Gardner Auditorium)

This course will look at the difficult nature of investigating domestic violence cases when there is an absence of physical violence. By examining a 2016 murder for hire case from central Nebraska the attendee will see how the cycle of violence, fear, and power and control, can all be present without direct physical violence. The attendee will hear from the victim who will share her story, and follow the investigation from the first call to its conclusion.

4:15 pm - 5:00 pm: Day 1 Wrap-up

DAY 2 - Thursday, March 29, 2018

7:30 am - 8:30 am: Registration (Gardner Foyer)

8:30 am - 8:45 am: Welcome & Announcements (Gardner Auditorium)

8:45 am - 10:15 am: "Elements of Neurobiology of Trauma"
Russell W. Strand (Gardner Auditorium)

10:15 am - 10:30 am: BREAK

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: "Understanding Context, Trauma, & Normal Reactions to Trauma"
Russell W. Strand (Gardner Auditorium)

12:00 pm - 1:15 pm: LUNCH (Frey Suite - Student Center)

1:15 pm - 2:45 pm: "Forensic Experiential Trauma Interview"
Russell W. Strand (Gardner Auditorium)

2:45 pm - 3:00 pm: BREAK

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm: "Identifying the Subtle Signs of Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault and Working With Victims"
Russell W. Strand (Gardner Auditorium)

4:30 pm - 5:00 pm: Conference Wrap-up

FRONTLINE Training Conference

A Trauma Informed Training for
Law Enforcement, Probation Officers,
County Court Employees, Attorneys,
Corrections, Judges, and Advocates.

MARCH 28-29
Wayne State College
Wayne, NE

COST:
$20/day or $35/both days
registration to include lunch

REGISTER TODAY!

Register online at www.havenhousefsc.org or call 402-375-5433.

CONFIRMED TRAINERS

Russell Strand
Retired Special Agent

John Wilkinson
Aequitas Attorney Advisor

Sgt. Ryan Phinney - Nebraska State Patrol
Detective Mark Dishaw - Cyber Crimes Investigator
Detective Beth Abramson - Case Study
Officer Ben Rodenberg - Police Investigator
Michael Gilmore - Dep. County Attorney
Detective Brandon Stigge - Digital Forensics
Justice For Our Neighbors
And More!